Around the Greens

The Cecilia Cho Sho(w) Continues

The remarkable 14 year old Cecilia Cho from the Pakuranga Club continues to impress everybody around her. In the last month Cecilia has won the National Womens Amateur title, finished runner up in the New Zealand Womens Strokeplay Championship, won the women's section of the Carrus Tauranga Open and won the Auckland Secondary Schools Strokeplay Championship. She represents her Club in the Betty Faesen Pennants and wears the Auckland colours with pride. She is arguably the best player of her age the Country has ever seen. Hard to see any other woman player in Auckland wrestling the Female Golfer of the Year title from her.

Auckland Golf Club Win National Inter Club Final

The Auckland Golf Club team of Ryan Fox, Ben Wallace, Fraser Wilkin and Brent Paterson braved the terrible conditions the best to win the National Inter Club Final played at the Lakes Resort course at Pauanui. Experienced former international Brent Paterson lead his team to victory by recording the best round of the day in the rain shortened tournament. The Auckland team held off the challenge of New Plymouth to win by three shots.

Waiuku Ladies Do Their Club Proud

The Waiuku Ladies team of Joy James, Trish Stewart, Margaret James and Glennis Kerr are the toast of their Club following their success at the Auckland Final of the National Club Teams Championship. They defeated Chamberlain Park on a countback with Host Club Akarana third.

Maungakiekie Break Akarana Hearts

The Maungakiekie number two Bissett Shield player Brad Bonnington, broke the hearts of defending Bissett Shield holders Akarana by playing a seemingly impossible golf shot at the last hole in his semi final clash with Van Wright. However, the shot came off and propelled Maungakiekie into a finals clash with the Auckland Club who will be looking to add the Auckland title to the National title won earlier this month. It should be a great final at The Grange.

Around the Board Table

NZ Golf Change Constitution

At a recent Special General Meeting of NZ Golf, the Districts voted in favour of a Constitutional change that sees the abolition of the Council, the appointment of two Directors to compliment the six elected Directors and the introduction of at least two Forums each year where Districts will have their say in the running of NZ Golf. The changes mean a more streamlined administration that met with the approval of funding agent SPARC.
